“Feeling Good in the Woods”

Event 1/8: Walk in the Woods for Peace of Mind with Gordon Stronach

We want people of different ages and abilities in our community to discover how access to local woodlands for different activities can be really good for our health and wellbeing.

Sunday 9 June 2019

Gordon, who is a Nature-based Lifestyle Guide, will introduce participants to mindfulness walking in Five Mile Wood as a contribution to self-caring for their own wellbeing in a series of 90 minute sessions throughout the day:

10.00am -11.30am

12 noon - 1:30pm

2.00pm - 3.30pm

4.00pm - 5:30pm

Walking in silence is a key part of the experience. Bring whatever you think might assist you in the session and means of recording whatever the mindfulness process brings up for you.

To book a free place for a session (first come first serve), email Elspeth asap at:
